Monday, March 10. 1707.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Mar. 12.

Madrid, Feb. 22.

THE publick Rejoycings for the Queen's being with Child are continued by all the Towns and Communities. The Cities of Toledo and Corduba have sent each 4 Deputies to compliment her Majesty on this Occasion. 'Tis advis'd from Orihuela, that the Enemy had drawn out of Alicant part of the Troops that were in Garrison there, to reinforce the Garrison of Valencia, who were much diminish'd by Sickness, and by desertion occasion'd by Want of Provisions and Pay. Part of the Succours they expected were arriv'd, as was reported by Deserters, and has been confirm'd by several Advices from the Coast. Which Advices assure us, that the Enemy's Fleet have brought to Alicant almost all the Troops that came by the last Convoy to Portugal, to the Number of 5 or 6000 Men at most. Some Persons who lately left Valencia, have reported, that a Council of War had been held there, in which it was resolv'd that the Archduke should go to Tarragona: That the Conde de Cardona and Councillor Mercader, the principal Leaders of the Rebellion in the Kingdom of Valencia, were put under Confinement, in order to oblige them to give an Account of the Sums they have rais'd, not only from the confiscated Estates of those who would not depart from their Loyalty to the King, but likewise from the publick Revenues which they have seiz'd and dispos'd of as they thought fit. Letters from Alcantara of the 10th give an Account, that a Detachment of that Garrison consisting of 400 Foot and 60 Horse, march'd to attack Rosmarinos whither the Portuguese had sent a Reinforcement of 200 Men 3 Days before. The Castilians scal'd the Town, plunder'd it, and set it on Fire: But for want of Artillery could not attack the Castle, and return'd with several Prisoners and a Colours: Having had but 5 Men kill'd and 25 wounded. Advice was given from several Quarters that the Portuguese were advancing towards Salamanca: The 11th Major Gen. Montenegro went to get Intelligence of them, with some Squadrons of the Regiment of Carvajal, and several Gentlemen Volunteers. He was follow'd by 6 Companies of the Regiment of Foot of the Marquis de Casa-Pavon, and by some Militia. They found the Portuguese, in Number 2000 Foot and 150 Horse, drawn out of the Garrisons of the Provinces of Beira and Alemtejo, advanc'd to the Bridge of Yecla with design to make themselves Masters of it: For which purpose they had brought with them some Boats and 4 Pieces of Cannon. When they approach'd the Head of the Bridge, 40 Grenadiers of the Regiment of Chaves made so great a Fire upon them, that they oblig'd them to retire. Then they put their Boats into the Water, and went to pass the River at another Place: But the Regiment of Chaves, Santiago, and Pavon, charg'd them so vigorously, that they made them retire to their Boats, with such Precipitation, that above 300 of them were kill'd or drown'd. The rest of the Troops having pass'd the River at San-Felices, put them all into Disorder, and they retir'd to Almeida, having lost 60 Horses and the Booty they had taken in their March. The Militia having taken Arms, pursued them on all sides, and took above 600 Prisoners. We have Advice from Ceura, that the 29th of January 600 Moors attack'd the two new Forts call'd St. Ignarius and St. Xavier; but were presently put into Disorder by the Fire of several Pieces of Cannon, loaded with Cartridge-shot, which kill'd a great Number of them. After which the Grenadiers sallying out upon their Attack, beat them from it. 'Tis believ'd there was an Alcaide or Lord kill'd, because a lamentable Cry was made in the middle of the Action. A Moor that was taken Prisoner and was much wounded, immediately desir'd Baptism, and ass on as he had receiv'd it expir'd. A Sentinel that was taken, reported that the King of Moroco lay sick past Hopes of Recovery; and that the Sidana or Sultana-Queen, having sent for the Sidan her Son who was at Morocco, to come to her, 'twas believ'd the King was dead.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 15.

Milan, Mar. 1. These two Nights past a terrible Fire has been made both by the Besieged and Besiegers; the latter have thrown a vast Number of Bombs into the Castle. Deserters report, that the Garrison is much diminish'd, as well by Desertion as by Sickness. Yesterday at Day-break the Garrison made a Sally, and some were kill'd on both sides, among the rest a Captain and an Ingenier on the side of the Imperialists. The Works are carried on almost to the Palisades, and we hope to carry the Covert-Way to morrow: A Breach is made too in the Rampart on the side towards St. Lucie, where is the Battery of the Imperialists, which is augmented with 4 Pieces of Cannon. Prince Eugene goes often to view the Works. We expect some more Cannon from Pavia, whence several Waggons loaded with Powder arriv'd Yesterday. Some Troops of Wirtemberg and of Savoy are arriv'd, to reinforce those employ'd in the Siege. We have Advice that the Duke of Savoy is making Preparations to attack Valenza. The Republick of Lucca have agreed upon the Contributions they are to pay the Imperialists; and the Republick of Genoa is on the Point of concluding theirs.

Turin, Feb. 26. On Thursday last a French Drum came hither, with Letters and a full Power from the Court for General Seneterre, who is a Prisoner in this City, to treat of a Cattel. His Royal Highness has dispatch'd one of his Adjutants to Prince Eugene, to give him an Account of it, and desire him to nominate some Officer, to assist at the Conferences that are to be held on that Subject. The Hereditary Prince of Hesse-Cassel is to set out from hence to Morrow for Milan. The Marshal de Thesse is arriv'd in Dauphine: By the Dispositions the Enemy make we guess they will keep on the Defensive on this Side; the rather because they have order'd some Battallions to march from Savoy to the Netherlands.

From the Paris Gazette, dated March 12.

Paris, March 12. 'Tis advis'd, that 4 Ships which come lately from Vera-Cruz arriv'd at Brest the 27th of last Month, having been hindred by contrary Wind from putting into Spain. They were commanded by Don Andrez de Pez, and have on board above a Million of Pieces of Eight, which the Kingdom of New-Spain or Mexico and the Duke d'Albuquerque the Viceroy, have sent as a Present to his Catholick Majesty, in Testimony of their Fidelity and Zeal for his Service. They have also on board several Millions in Silver or Goods, for the Account of private Merchants. The Fleet from the Levant which arriv'd some Days ago at Marseilles, under the Convoy of 3 Men of War, consists of 10 Ships and 9 Barks; whose Cargo is valued at above 4 Millions.

Hague, March 15. To Day Mr. Stepney, and Messieurs Renswoude and Vandenberg the States-Deputies, set out from hence for Brussels. One of King Augustus's Councillours of War is arriv'd here, to conclude the Treaty for the Saxon Troops offer'd the Allies by his Master, and was in Conference to Day about it: After which the Minister of Saxony and all the Deputies of that Nation, were treated magnificently by the Prussian Minister. As for the Loan desir'd in the Name of the Estates of Saxony, 'tis not doubted that if the States grant their Guaranty for it, they will wisely take proper Measures that the Money be applied solely to paying the Swedes; least it should be converted to other Uses if remitted to the Court of Saxony. The States of the Province of Holland are to assemble to Morrow. The Duke of Savoy's Courier being return'd from England, is dispatch'd to Piemont: 'Tis conjectur'd he carries with him a Scheme of the Military Operations for the ensuing Campaign: He was robb'd as he came over in the Pacquet-Boat; while he was asleep his Portmantle was cut open, and some Pacquets were taken out; on his making Complaint to the Captain, search was made and some were found and restor'd to him, but others are missing. The Minister of Sweden reports, that the Emperour has by Count Sintzendorf his Envoy in Saxony acknowledg'd King Stanislaus, and that another of the confederated Potentates is dispos'd to do the like. Letters from France import, that General Medavi having drawn all his Forces together, was on the March to pass the Adda, and attempt the Relief of the Castle of Milan: But add, it was believ'd he would not dare to venture a Battle. These Letters confirm the intire Defeat of the Body of Troops of Navarre under Prince Tilly: Which News has very much disturb'd the Diversions of the Carnival at Marli.

Honorato Fornello, Gent. no Physician, could hardly be perswaded to publish his Dissolution Salt, as being laborious to be made, and since it has been (which you know is a good while ago) People have and do flock to buy it, as also find for it out of Foreign Countries, as New-England, &c. giving it its due Praise. It is a Remedy for the Stone and Gravel, which it totally roots out, by dissolving it in the Kidneys and Bladder, and carries it away insensibly by Urine, yet visibly if made in a Vial and suffered to settle, being undeniable that the Stone is dissolved. He was cured by it himself, as also divers Gentlemen in London since it has been publish'd, and others have found a great Benefit by it, which are not willing their Names should be expos'd, by observing the Rule, next God's Blessing, none shall have need to be cut for this Distemper. Whoever will prevent the setting of Gravel, take a Dose in 8 or 14 days and continue so, that Body shall never smart for it. It keeps good many Years. For a larger Account and Directions, you are refer'd to the Paper given with it, being to be had of Mr. Thomas Dowse, Perfumer, at the Sign of the Plough in Grace-Church-street, and Mr. Robert Parry Perfumer at the West end of Exeter-Change the House with the Windmill, London, and no where else in all England. Price 4 s. the half Ounce, which is 8 Doses.
